New York, Jan. 6.—After their early outburst of activity and strength, stocks gradually fell away and for the balance of the morning session business was on a limited scale. The gains recorded at the opening were quite generally reduced and in some instances altogrether effaced.

Heaviness of Baltimore & Ohio, which declined activity, and weakness in New York Central probably counted among the factors that militated against an immediate continuance of rise, while Amalgamated copper was under pressure in connection with adverse trade reports.

The Mexican stuntion and another batch of unfavorable railroad statements helped to check the advance.

Bonds were steady.

The afternoon session started with renewed activity and strength in which union Pacific touched 158%. The announcement of Union Pacifics distribution of the Baltimore & Ohio holdings caused Union Pacific to recede to 156%, and Baltimore & Ohio to 884. Later Union Pacific rising to a portion of the market became rather feverish and movertain inter, Union Pacific rising to a portion of the factors of the market became rather feverish and movertain inter, Union Pacific rising to a portion of the factors of the market became rather feverish and movertain inter, Union Pacific rising to a portion of the factors of the fac

The market became rather feverish and uncertain inter. Union Pacific rising to a higher level than before, only to lose a point, while the preferred lost two. Baltimore & Ohio common fell back to the previous low mark and the preferred lost three points. Elsewhere the undertone was tregular.

The market closed strong. Highest quotations were recorded for Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Reading and numerous appellaities in the final hour, when the notivity of the early session was resumed on an increasing scale of operations.
